Reason for change:	* Allow to describe within the EO Product metadata the fact that an EO Product belongs to a group of related products.
Summary of change:	* Addition within the EarthObservationMetaData element of an optional element productId that holds the identifier of a particular group to which the product belongs to. Group members represent then granules or portions of end-user products that are eligible for specific aggregations (e.g. all Sentinel-2 granules having the same productId can be assembled together to form a Sentinel-2 end-user

	product)
Consequences if not approved: ?	Not possible to specify group membership.
